The TIFF heat map

BY: EMER CONNON

Haven't received your exclusive TIFF party invites yet? Don't fret, there are plenty of public places across Toronto where mortals can mix with...well, other mortals who just happen to be richer and better looking. Here, a map to where the stars eat, drink and walk their pomeranians. Happy hunting.

West-ish

23. Brassaii, 461 King St. W.

Everyone says that Brassaii is the new Sassafras (Uma Thurman and Adrian Grenier are fans). If you loiter outside the gates long enough, you're bound to see someone. And if you shake an empty coffee cup long enough, you're bound to score some serious coinage.
